Work 3

C. Answer these questions.

1. "Okay Mother, I'll go right away,"

a) Who said this and to whom?

b) Where did the speaker have to go?

c) Why was he eager to go right away?

Ans. a) Johan said this to his mother.

b) Johan had to go to Miki's shop in the market.

c) Johan was eager to go right away because it meant that he could go exploring new places.

2. 'Karli fluffed his feathers angrily.'

a) What made Karli so angry?

b) What does this show about his feelings for Johan?

Ans. a) Karli fluffed his feathers angrily when some people on the way to the market asked Johan if he was selling his rooster, Karli.

b) This shows that Karli trusted Johan and was a loyal pet to him.

3. 'Johan's mother laughed. Then her face began to turn red ...'

a) Why did Johan's mother laugh?

b) Why did Johan's mother's face begin to turn red?

c) What made her feel like this?

Ans. a) Johan's mother laughed when he told her how he had sent the crabs home, giving them the directions. He said that the disobedient crabs must have taken a short cut through the river, and he would go and find them.

b) Johan's mother's face began to turn red as she was angry with Johan.

c) She was angry at Johan's foolishness and irresponsible behaviour.

4. Why were the crabs angry with Johan's pets?

Ans. The crabs were angry with Johan's pets because Karli pecked at one of them and Chai sniffed around them.

5. Why was Johan tempted to join his friends?

Ans. Johan was tempted to join his friends because they were sailing paper boats and having a lot of fun playing near the river.

6. Why did the crabs wink at each other?

Ans. The crabs winked at each other because Johan sending them to his house alone meant that they could escape to the river and be free.
