Poem

From a Railway Carriage

A. 1.A tramp is a homeless person who travels from one place to another and makes a living by begging or doing small jobs.

2. He is standing and gazing at the train, perhaps amazed by its speed.

3. "Stringing the daisies' means the grass seems to connect the daisies to form a sort of garland.

B . 1 The poet sees bridges, houses, hedges, ditches, meadows, horses, cattle, the hill, the plain, stations, a child, a tramp, a field full of daisies, a loaded cart driven by a man, a mill, and a river

(write any ten answers)

2 Three verbs that express the speed of the train are-charging, fly, whistle by

3 a) passes by very quickly

4 Each a glimpse and gone forever!"
