9:00 p.m.

Dear Diary

Today was one of the happiest days of my life. I participated in the inter-school debate competition held in our school auditorium. At first, I was nervous, but as I started speaking, my confidence increased. I spoke clearly and presented my points well. When the judges announced my name as the winner, I felt extremely proud and excited.

My teachers and friends congratulated me warmly. My parents were also very happy after hearing the news. This victory has encouraged me to work harder and improve my speaking skills further.

It was truly a memorable day for me.

Q2. You are Aman. Your school organized a tree plantation drive on World Environment Day. Write a diary entry sharing your experience and thoughts in about 100–120 words.

18 May 2026, Thursday
8:30 p.m.

Dear Diary

Today our school celebrated World Environment Day by organizing a tree plantation drive. All the students and teachers gathered in the school playground early in the morning. We planted many saplings around the campus and nearby park.

I planted a neem tree with my friends. It felt wonderful to do something useful for nature. Our principal also gave a speech on the importance of trees and environmental protection. I realized that even small efforts can make a big difference.

The activity was enjoyable as well as educational. I promised myself that I would take care of the plant and spread awareness about saving the environment.
